

DAYS OF PRAYER

JANUARY 2021

10 am – Making all things new – Part 1

Hopeweaver Morning Prayer...

O Praise Him...Alleluia

The flowers of today are the seeds of tomorrow...

Genesis 1:31A: God saw all that he had made, and it was very good.

Lamentations 3:22-24 “Because of the Lord’s great love, we are not consumed, for his compassions never fail. They are new every morning; great is your faithfulness. I say to myself, “The Lord is my portion; therefore I will wait for him.””

Space to remain quiet and listening for that still small voice...

4 pm – Making all things new – Part 2

Hopeweaver Evening Prayer...

O Praise Him...Alleluia

I believe that God is making all things new. I believe that Christ overcame death and that pattern is apparent all through life and history: life from death, water from a stone, redemption from failure, connection from alienation. I believe that suffering is part of the narrative, and that nothing really good gets built when everything's easy.

AZ QUOTES

ISAIAH 43:18-19

“Forget the former things; do not dwell on the past. See, I am doing a new thing! Now it springs up; do you not perceive it? I am making a way in the wilderness and streams in the wasteland.” We have a new identity in Christ

8 pm – Making all things new – Part 3

2 CORINTHIANS 5:17

Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come: The old has gone, the new is here!

New patterns and new ways of doing old things is Christ's gift to us in prayer
